Fire District No. 3 Announces Special Election Results

CEDAR KNOLLS, NJ — Hanover Township Fire District No. 3 is pleased to announce that voters approved the purchase and financing of a new Basic Life Support ambulance during the special election held on Wednesday, November 18, 2026.

Official Election Results:

YES / APPROVE: 75 votes

NO / DISAPPROVE: 12 votes

The approval authorizes the District to purchase a new ambulance at a cost not to exceed $385,000, utilizing $40,000 from restricted fund balance and financing the remaining balance as necessary.

The Board of Fire Commissioners extends its sincere appreciation to all residents who participated in the special election. We are grateful for the community's continued support and commitment to ensuring the District can provide reliable, quality emergency medical services to those we serve.

We thank our residents for their continued trust and support as we work to meet the evolving emergency service needs of our community.
